THE REAL QUESTION.
The real question is: "Can I be cured?" If you are a sufferer from any of the following troubles, you will find it impossible to draw the line where debility and weakness merge into consumption. Your trouble may not be consumption today, but you don't know what it may become tomorrow. Hundreds of people have been restored to robust health by Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" after reputable physicians had pronounced them incurable. The important point is that they were hopelessly ill but this matchless "Discovery" restored and saved them.

"I was not able to do hardly any work at all," says Mrs. J. W. Sanderson, of Beaver Dam, Wis., in a most interesting letter to Dr. Pierce. "I had pain in my left side and back, and had headache all the time. I tried your medicine and it helped me. Last spring I had a bad cough. I got so bad I had to be in bed all the time. My husband thought I had consumption. He wanted me to get a doctor, but I told him if it was consumption he could not help me. We thought we would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and before I had taken one bottle the cough was stopped and I have had no more of it returning. Your medicine is the best I have taken."

Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice, in a plain sealed envelope, absolutely free. His nearly 40 years' experience as chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo, N. Y., has made him an expert in chronic diseases. Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

THE POWER OF STEAM.
Many May See But It Takes Genius to Harness.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was. Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery. Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which enters the life from the roots of human hair.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Restores the senses of taste and smell. Large size, 50 cents; at druggists; by mail, Trial size, 10 cents; by mail, ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren street, New York.

HAY FEVER
This famous remedy does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even if but slightly disordered or overburdened.

Kodol
supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles and membranes of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. It cures indigestion, flatulence, palpitation of the heart, nervous dyspepsia and all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying and strengthening the glands and membranes of the stomach and digestive organs.

MANAGING OF DAVIS.

"In my opinion the shackling of Jefferson Davis at Fortress Monroe was entirely unnecessary," is the declaration of Rev. J. W. Sanderson, of Beaver Dam, Wis., who was officer of the day at Fortress Monroe the day before the famous prisoner was manacled by order of Gen. Nelson A. Miles, then in command of that post. The controversy which has been kept up in the newspapers the last two weeks between General Miles and Mrs. Davis has stirred the memories of the few old soldiers who were stationed at Fortress Monroe at that time.

Captain Sanderson was at the fort the day Mr. Davis was brought there, had an intimate association with him almost daily during the time of his incarceration, and it was to him that Capt. Jerome Tiltow, who carried out General Miles' order, related the circumstances within 10 minutes after Mr. Davis was put in manacles.

"I was at my quarters on the evening when it occurred," said Mr. Sanderson. "I was about to sit down when Capt. Jerome Tiltow, of the Third Pennsylvania Artillery, of which I was a member, entered.

"I have just been obliged to perform a disagreeable duty," said Captain Tiltow to me. 'I have just returned from putting Jefferson Davis in irons.'

"Captain Tiltow then went on to relate how it had happened.

"I had with me a sergeant and a blacksmith," said Captain Tiltow, "and when I reached the casemate I found Mr. Davis sitting on his cot.

"'What?' he said. 'Do you mean to say that General Miles intends to place irons on my limbs?' I, as an officer of the regular army and as former Secretary of War, wish to inform you, Captain Tiltow, that you, as an officer of the army, would be justified in refusing to carry out such an order."

"But the sergeant grabbed Mr. Davis from behind, threw him over on the bed, and in a twinkling the shackles were clamped on."

"Captain Tiltow then told me that Davis, when he realized that the deed had been done, broke down and wept. He said that he felt sorry for him, but had no other alternative than to do as he had been ordered."

A Maniac Husband.
A sudden outburst of insanity turns out after all to have been the only cause of the murder and suicide in which Druggist John E. Chatham slew his mother-in-law, Mrs. Isaac Abrams; murdered his wife and then took his own life in Chester, Pa.

Mrs. Chatham, whose life hung by a slender thread, has at last been able to talk. Her story discloses circumstances most dramatic, as follows:

Mrs. Chatham says her husband, without a moment's warning, ran into the dining-room from behind the prescription counter, where he was preparing a prescription. He was in an insane fury, mumbled incoherently and carried a hammer which he had used to open boxes. He ran at his mother-in-law, struck her a blow on the temple and she fell to the floor. The infuriated man then picked from the table a butcher knife and attacked Mrs. Chatham. She grappled with him, and in a struggle succeeded in wrenching the knife from his hand. The attack was then renewed with the hammer, and he rained blow after blow upon the head of his wife and baby. In protecting the child the mother received many of the cruel blows on her hands and shoulders, and finally fell unconscious to the floor. Mrs. Chatham thinks she was struck 10 or 11 times, and the only thing that prevented her from being killed outright was her resistance.

World's Bloodiest Battle.
The estimate by a correspondent who is with General Kuropatkin that the losses on both sides at the battle of Mukden were not less than 200,000 men, makes it appear that this combat was by far the bloodiest ever known.

The largest number of troops ever before engaged in battle was at Arbelia, in 334 B. C., when 35,000 Greeks, under Alexander, put to rout a horde of undisciplined Persians believed to have numbered 950,000.

Before the present war the bloodiest battle in modern history was that of Leipzig, in 1813, when 300,000 Germans defeated 171,000 French. The Germans lost 47,000 and the French 63,000.

The greatest battle ever fought in this country was that of Gettysburg, in 1863, when 117,000 federals fought 65,000 Confederates. The losses, including prisoners, were 17,000 federals and 27,000 Confederates. The Confederates lost 40 per cent. of their force, being the largest percentage of loss ever known.

The number of men engaged at Mukden is variously estimated at from 800,000 to 1,000,000. The percentage of loss appears to have been between 20 and 25 per cent.

Pleasant and Harmless.
Don't drag the stomach to cure a cough. One Minute Cough Cure cures the cough, drives out the phlegm, soothes the throat, breaks up the cold and soothes and cures. A quick cure for Croup and Whooping Cough. Sold by all druggists.

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs. Dimmick's Compound made her well.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful menstruation—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the womb. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me.—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

Her second letter:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
I would remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them.—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—it saved her life. Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers ailing women helpful advice.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.
William Shaffer, a brakeman of Denison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clown." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Are You Engaged?
Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennington, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, sell and guarantee them at 50c a bottle.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who has tried vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50c. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.
